I appreciate my siblings Obasemo Sunday, Obasemo Dorcas and Obasemo Temitope for their prayers, attention and love. May God almighty never part from us. May we always be a good family at all times!

I appreciate you for being a reader of this book; may the good Lord grant you more understanding and wisdom to know what makes you wealthy without any form of confusion.

Description

God Almighty has blessed the world before our arrival, so that no man in the world would find himself in emptiness. God Almighty blessed everyone on earth with a unique currency, so that no man would be undervalued, dejected or devastated because of money. He gave us everything in the world to make it possible that no man on earth would be poor today, wherever he is in the world when it comes to money.

The Real Currency in the world is not just the kind of currency you use in your country, because money is more than paper money. Either you are rich or poor! It doesn't have anything to do with where you live in the world. It is the Real currency you have in you, around you that produces the currency you need wherever you are in the world.

It is great that you have found this book: The Real Currency In The World. It is to let you know that you are not empty; there is no scarcity of money for you anywhere in the world. Because, when the human beings, natural things and natural substances haven't disappeared from the world: money is always abundant for you! It is only the emptiness in the mind of a man that brings him the scarcity of money wherever he is in the world.

Have this book now: to see how blessed you are in the world as a human, how unlimited the riches and wealth you can acquire without being declined: because God Almighty has made it possible for you.

Preface

You are not poor for being a human being on earth today. You are rich because you are on earth today where you are, that is why you can't be poor because of the economic state of your country: because God Almighty has blessed you and also blessed the world for you. You are wealthy! But many people don't know what makes a man wealthy in the world and what makes the money they need wherever they are. That is why countless people have been shouting "there is no money here." Whereas money has never disappeared because the world hasn't ended!

That is why this book "The Real Currency In The World" came into existence for you to know that your money is not just that paper currency you use in your country. You already know that the paper money never leaves with you, it is always coming and going away from you no matter how much it is. It is only The Real Currency that will always remain with you producing the paper money you need everywhere you go till the world ends for you.

Introduction

God Almighty has blessed the world and everyone in the world, therefore, No man on earth today is exempted from Riches, because everyone got The Real Currency to produce countless paper currency everywhere in the world. No man can take away your money from you. No place in the world can make you poor, because everyone everywhere has a service to offer for someone.

Because everyone everywhere in the world needs someone, something from somewhere; there can't be a scarcity of money for you, if you are not in the dreamy world!
