

SEVEN SISTERS

Valerie

She was a grave yard worker that was building a home for her and her daughter. She never trusted anyone or let anyone in her metal box. Her job was training managers to cook at restaurants, she was an M.I.T. trainer which means of course manager in training. She had a lot of things going good for her in life if she can just keep the thieving monsters away from her house. Boarding up all the windows and bolting all doors wasn't good enough and she could never leave her house without someone staying there to watch everything. It worked out pretty good for awhile while her daughter Kaylow was young and she was paying a babysitter to come to the house during the nights to sleep and watch over her and the house. Valerie was such a faithful worker that she never called in sick, never called in for any reasons and was never late. She didn't see the need for any of that nonsense. Collecting antiques, antique dolls, and antique toys was her hobby.
