About the Book

'Oh, no, Callie, you must never, ever go on the baby's bed. That's not allowed.'

When a new baby arrives in the Anderson household, Callie does her best to make it welcome. But everything goes horribly wrong and even David who has always been her friend, has no time for her. Then she is banished from David's warm and cosy bed to the kitchen, and Callie has had enough. If the Andersons don't want her any more, she will just have to do something desperate . . .
