

The background is a complex, abstract composition. It features a central vertical strip of grayscale, wavy, organic shapes. To the left, there are vibrant, overlapping layers of pink, magenta, and purple. To the right, there are more vibrant, overlapping layers of purple, magenta, and pink. A prominent, diagonal, wavy band of blue and white patterns cuts across the center. In the bottom right, there are diagonal bands of orange and red. The overall effect is a rich, multi-colored, and textured abstract design.
