PREFACE.

" I "HE substance of this booklet is an address, afterwards written out in amplified form for The Scattered Nation, whence, by request, it is now reprinted. May the Great Shepherd of Israel bless this weak and inadequate effort to quicken interest in the hearts of Christians for the people still " beloved for the fathers' sakes," to whom He has never forgotten to be gracious even in the darkest hours of their long night of sorrow.

A DIVINE FORECAST OF JEWISH HISTORY:
A PROOF OF THE SUPERNATURAL ELEMENT IN SCRIPTURE.

Paper, 6¢ net (post free, yd.). Cloth, 1s. net (post free, is. xirf.).

" Written by one who has made its subject a life-long study, and has devoted many earnest years to work among the Jews; . . . full of interest to Bible students."

Preachers' Magazine.

"One of the very sanest and best little books on its subject we have ever read." Life of Faith.

" The renewed scattering of the Jewish people, consequent upon the repeated massacres in Russia, will invest with timely interest Rev. David Baron's book. In a succinct manner he sketches the familiar story, and after a luminous outline of the apostasy of the nation, he deals with its unique punishment, and the testimony of ' the everlasting people ' to the truth of God's Word. In conclusion, Israel's future is indicated as foreshadowed in the prophetic Scriptures. Mr. Baron has written many good books, but none of them has made a stronger appeal than this for a prayerful perusal of those who ' pray for the peace of Jerusalem.'" The Christian.

"A clear re-statement of an interesting theme, and will commend itself to all who value the place and purpose of the Hebrew people in the general plan of history. '

Irish Congregational Magazine.
