NESTIN'

WILDFLOWER WOODS

Listen to old Screech Owl screech,
Down in his house in the big gray beech.
Mister Coon went there to dine,
And stuck his mouth with porcupine.
Swinging on a grapevine swing,
Hear old Redbird's whistle ring!
Hear him cry: "Good cheer, Good cheer!
I live in Gene's woods all the year."
Mister Rattlesnake, down in the grass,
Wouldn't let Mud Turtle pass.
Turtle bit a diamond off his back,
Guinea on the fence cried: "Rack! Pot rack!"
Old Miss Swallow wanted a drink,
Black Bass gobbled her, quick as wink.
Kingfisher watching from a dead tree,
Laughed: "Ha, ha! You can beat me!"
Missus Field Mouse found a great big hole
Dug in her house by Miss Ground Mole.
"Look what you've done!" she cried in surprise.
"Look I" said Miss Mole. "Without any eyes?"

MORNING FACE

Ground Puppy had a crick in his back,
He went to Dr. Duck, a dreadful quack.
Duck cured the pain, but Puppy didn't thrive,
'Cause his doctor ate him alive.
Missus Pewee built her nest 'bove the door,
Red Squirrel threw her eggs on the floor.
When he ran to the closest tree,
Yellow Hammer hammered him com-plete-ly.
