

The book cover features a vibrant, cartoonish illustration. On the left, Noah, an elderly man with a large, dark, curly beard and hair, and a blue robe, looks towards the right. In the top left, a wooden ark sits on a green hill under a large, multi-colored rainbow. On the right, a tall giraffe with orange and brown spots and a blue elephant are visible. At the bottom, a small brown sheep with a white woolly body is peeking out. The title is written in large, bold, black letters in the center.
